SUITABILITY

This course is suitable for all participants from those who have no experience to experienced operators.

LANGUAGE LITERACY AND NUMERACY REQUIREMENTS

Learners must have a basic understanding of English. For example, learners must be able to read and understand what is being said and reply to questions verbally in English.

Please refer to “Important Language Literacy and Numeracy Requirement information” found on our website or contact us for further information

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

1 day training attendance including assessment.

COURSE DURATION

- Your course starts when you book!
- The overall course duration will depend on your previous skills and knowledge (both relating to EWP’s and other skills and knowledge), your Language Literacy and Numeracy skill level, and how quickly you learn.
- Your course may take anywhere from 16-20 hours – this includes pre-attendance study (up to 8 hours) and attendance (8 hours)

TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT INFORMATION:

Your training includes both theory and practical components. There is some assessment during the training component and then a Final Assessment.

- During the training attendance - You will be assessed throughout and at the end of the course to determine if you are Competent.

If you are not “Competent” then your trainer will detail how you can achieve this. This may include further training or simply re-assessment. Refer to Terms and Conditions of the course and the full information brochure.
