

Construction & Induction White Card Work Safely in the construction industry CPCCWHS1001

Workplace Health and Safety Queensland Construction Induction Card (White Card)

Who is this course for?

It is a requirement that everyone working on a building site in Australia or works in some jobs that has certain levels of requirements towards safety, to hold a Construction Induction Card, now known as a 'White Card'. Successful completion of this course will allow you to work on a building sites or roads in Australia.

To participate in this course:

- You must be at least 14 years of age to commence the course
- Have a thorough understanding of both written and spoken English
- Have 100 Points of ID (see ID requirements)
- Must wear closed shoes (no thongs or sandals allowed)

Where is the course held?

The course is run from 8.30am to 2.30pm (approx.) at Unit 7,47 Musgrave Road, Coopers Plains.

Time to Arrive?

You must arrive on time to complete registration and ID check. All courses close for entry 30 minutes after the scheduled start time. If you are more than 30 minutes late you will not be admitted and fee apply. See terms and conditions.

What does the course cover?

- Identify OHS legislative requirements.
- Identify construction hazards and control measures.
- Identify OHS communication and reporting processes.
- Identify OHS incident response procedure.

How much does it cost?

Please refer to our website for current pricing.

When do I get my White Card?

If you have met the WHS QLD identification requirements and the course requirements, then you will be issued with a Construction Induction Card (White Card) at the end of the day. This certificate is accepted all over Australia.